ELIGIBILITY

This is a Canada Summer Jobs funded opportunity.

Candidates do not need to be students. View Canada Summer Jobs priorities at:

<https://canada.ca/en/employment-social-development/services/funding/canada-summer-jobs/assessment-criteria.html>

To be eligible, applicants must:

- be between 15 and 30 years of age at the start of the employment*;
- be a Canadian citizen, permanent resident, or person to whom refugee protection has been conferred under the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act for the duration of the employment;
- and,
- have a valid Social Insurance Number at the start of employment and be legally entitled to work in Canada in accordance with relevant provincial or territorial legislation and regulations

*The candidate must be 15 years of age at the beginning of the employment period. The candidate may be more than 30 years of age at the end of the employment period as long as the candidate was 30 at the beginning of the employment period.

International students are not eligible participants. International students include anyone who is temporarily in Canada for studies and who is not a Canadian citizen, permanent resident, or person who has been granted refugee status in Canada. Youth awaiting a refugee status ruling, as well as those who hold a temporary visitor visa, youth visa or work visa are ineligible. As the objective of the Canada Summer Jobs program is to support youth entering the Canadian labour market, the temporary nature of an international student's time in Canada does not allow for a long-term connection to the labour market.

ABOUT BIKE EDMONTON

Learn how to fix your bike and explore the city by bike. Buy a refurbished bike, or donate a disused one. Meet other cyclists, and help us advocate for a vibrant city.

Whether you ride a few times a week, 265 bike-friendly days a year, or year-round, Bike Edmonton gives you the tools you need to enjoy cycling. Established as a non-profit society in 1980, we operate two volunteer-run community bike workshops, provide cycling education for people of all ages, host events with community partners year-round, and represent you at City Hall.

We work to make cycling accessible for everyone, because we believe that an Edmonton where anyone can choose to cycle is an Edmonton that's better for all.

APPLICATION

To apply, please submit a brief cover letter and a resume to jobs@bikeedmonton.ca. If the position has already been filled, we will update the website at <https://bikeedmonton.ca/jobs>; otherwise, the position is still open and applications will be accepted until a suitable candidate is found.

Please include the job title in your subject line. Applications will be considered as they are received. Bike Edmonton values diversity and is committed to equity and inclusion. We encourage applications from people who reflect our city's diverse communities.

We appreciate the interest of all candidates, however, only those selected for an interview will be contacted.
